

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

The Parochial Church Council (PCC) of St John the Baptist's Church, Shottesbrooke

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018.

2. Who are we?

The PCC of St John the Baptist's Church, Shottesbrooke, is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The PCC of St John the Baptist's Church, Shottesbrooke, complies with its obligations under the GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018 by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in our Parish and beyond;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the church;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications);
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services running at the church;
- To share your contact details with the Vicar and Church Administrator; and also with the Church Wardens, PCC Treasurer, PCC Secretary and Electoral Roll Officer should the need arise.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Either a legitimate interest or the explicit consent of the data subject, so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and services and process your gift aid donations and keep you informed about other relevant events.
- In the case of volunteers and employees processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement;
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided: -
 - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
 - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the church in order to carry out a service to other church members or for purposes connected with the church. We will only share your data with third parties outside of the church with your consent.

6. How long do we keep your personal data¹?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in the guide "Keep or Bin: Care of Your Parish Records" which is available from the Church of England website [see footnote for link], and in accordance with Church of England Safeguarding Regulations.

¹ Details about retention periods can currently be found in the Record Management Guides located on the Church of England website at: - <https://www.churchofengland.org/more/libraries-and-archives/records-management-guides>

Specifically, we retain electoral roll data while it is still current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate; and parish registers (baptisms, marriages, funerals) permanently.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the PCC of St John the Baptist's Church, Shottesbrooke, holds about you;
- The right to request that the PCC of St John the Baptist's Church, Shottesbrooke, corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the PCC of St John the Baptist's Church, Shottesbrooke, to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time;
- The right to request a copy of the personal data that we hold for you;
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to object to the processing of personal data;
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

8. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.
