Dear Friends of the parish of White Waltham with Shottesbrooke,

It feels like I have only had time to blink twice since I wrote my first piece for this magazine two months ago. Now, as I write, autumn is definitely here; the evenings are drawing in, the skies are clouding over, and my choice to wear shorts is feeling more and more foolish! I hope you had some good holiday times over the summer. Enough sunshine to keep you going through the next few months? Anyone remember the heat wave?

I wonder what helps you to remember things? Maybe you keep tickets or souvenirs of holidays, and it is always fun to dig out the photos, or be reminded by Facebook, of a past trip or holiday event enjoyed together.

I am still only in my third month here as Vicar. While it has already been exciting and challenging finding my way into the roles here, and lots of names to remember, I do not have long to look back on yet. But of course, in November, we are coming up to a special remembrance day, as it is 100 years since the guns of the first world war fell silent. It was the end of a conflict that scarred the nations, and changed the world, forever.

It is important that we regularly take time to remember and honour those who have given their lives to keep us safe and those who continue to do so. But even as we remember these heroes, every day we are reminded that the “war to end all wars” did not lead to peace. Human pride, greed and stupidity continues to lead to millions of deaths. In the bible, God makes it clear that warfare is not His desire for the world. It is a consequence of us turning away from Him and going our own way. But Father God didn’t leave it like that, and we can remember God’s Son Jesus coming into the world. Now He was also violently killed by proud and greedy men, but his death was for us. God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Romans 5v8. He gave his life as a deliberate sacrifice of love, to pay the price for pride and greed and to offer us a way back to God. We live now knowing the continuing reality of human conflict and strife, but we are promised in the bible a better future, where peace between peoples and nations is possible and every tear will be wiped away. Father God’s good news of love gives hope and light to our world, which can seem so dark and hopeless.

In a similar way, I have been thinking about how we remember people we love who have died. We are beginning to plan for a service where there is a particular focus on remembering those who have died, and being comforted by the good news of Jesus. We will have a candlelit evening service at Shottesbrooke Church on Sunday 11th November. This will be a reflective service, where there will be an opportunity to give thanks for a loved one or pray for those who mourn, to light a candle, and to be encouraged in the hope and comfort our Father God offers freely by His Son. If you are interested, please watch out for further information or be in touch with the church office nearer the time.

In the meantime, remember we have our regular church services on Sundays where visitors and returners are always welcome, and where we together remember God’s loving acts of the past, which gives us a certain hope for the future and so peace and love for now. May that be true for you,

Dave

Harvest Festival Family Service

Suitable for all ages - everyone is welcome!

Your gifts this year will be given to Maidenhead Foodshare

This charity supports people who are in crisis and need food. Some of those receiving food are awaiting benefits due to loss of jobs, some have lost partners and suddenly the main income has gone, and some need food supplies for other reasons.

You can help those who need food by giving non-perishable items in packets with a long shelf life. Maidenhead Foodshare particularly needs:

- tinned vegetables
- cooking sauces
- tinned fruit
- hotdogs
- meatballs
- tinned tomatoes
- rice pudding
- custard

The charity already has an abundance of soup, pasta, baked beans, tuna and porridge!

A BIG THANK YOU

to all those who help to distribute these magazines to every household, and many of the businesses, in the Parish.
Your hard work is very much appreciated!

Church Teas 2018

It was great to see so many people at the Church Teas that we held this summer.

The Teas were held in The Tree House on 3 occasions: Sunday 29 July, Sunday 12 August and Saturday 8 September. We served cream teas, a variety of cakes, tea, coffee and cold drinks, as well as selling homemade preserves. We aimed to cater for all tastes and ages and it was really good to see many familiar faces as well as some new ones – and to see several people at successive teas!

We hope to be able to run the teas again in 2019 so please do keep an eye out for publicity nearer the time. In the meantime, a big thank you for your support and your encouraging words!

Barbara, Bridget, Liz and the Church Teas Team!

PS If you have any feedback that would help us to improve our Church Teas please email us c/o waltham.vicar@btinternet.com

The Way Ahead

Have you seen the film ‘The Way’ with Martin Sheen?
He is the father tackling ‘El Camino de Santiago’ in Spain (St James’ Way) as he tries to find meaning behind his son’s tragic death on this same walk previously. It’s a pilgrimage. It can be walked (and cycled). It’s attempted by hundreds of ‘thinkers’ each day, seeking to find an inner depth to the meaning of life – maybe through tragedy, through uncertainty, through failure, through joy – and perhaps hoping to find God as well in the process.

It’s a very long journey! Or you can select sections to walk, staying in monasteries / hostleries en route, before reaching Santiago de Compostela Cathedral for the final Christian act of worship.

If you’ve completed this challenge, I’ll be interested to hear about it. It’s on my ‘to do’ list!

Well, in White Waltham we don’t have that sort of challenge but we do have ‘The Way’! It’s our newly upgraded pathway through the church yard. Please use it if you’re out walking – Church Hill is a winding road and not safe for pedestrians to use with all that traffic.

Our ‘Way’ through the churchyard provides a secure, safe and smooth surface which makes certain that wheelchairs, buggies and visitors with sticks can negotiate the pathway much more easily now.

In the Bible, Jesus often talks about the need to make the right choices, by taking the right Way. The broad attractive Way is described as too easy and too distracting while the narrower Way is more challenging and demands stronger faith – yet it is this more challenging Way that offers the greatest rewards.

Perhaps we have made this new pathway surface too broad and too easy!

But it does also give us this reminder, this challenge about our own lives: Are we easily pulled along the wide Way by the crowd, by all the things that seem attractive? Or are we prepared to tough it out on the narrow Way which Jesus says leads to real life?

The Way Ahead for you and me is changing here at St Mary’s. Come along and find out for yourself!

Be part of it! Find your Way!

We recently had a visit from a local group of non-ringers and received some wonderful feedback from their tour of the bell tower.

“I attended bell ringing demo. A thoroughly enjoyable, informative evening. Didn't realise how much there was to learn about bell ringing. Thank you.”

“I would like to say that we had a very informative evening. I had never been up a Bell Tower before so it was a new experience for me. Being able to ring the bells was a particular delight and I now have a new appreciation of the work, skill and strength it takes to ring them. Thank you very much.”

It is always a delight for the Bell Ringers to give people the chance to see the Bell tower. If you belong to a group and want to visit the tower do contact us to arrange your visit for 2019. We don’t offer visits during the cold, dark winter months as it is not very nice seeing the bells then: the Belfry is a very open space to allow the sound out so hence the cold and wind comes in! But individuals are more than welcome to come along for a taster session at a mutually convenient time. We have just had a new recruit start to learn to ring. He had a taster session one evening and since then has had three lessons (so far) and is progressing well.

Shottesbrooke hosted the Bradfield Ringing Course in August. This was well organised, big… and a bit noisy! Shottesbrooke also hosted the Sonning Branch Youth Practice in early September. This was well attended with many people coming from the Reading area.

The time has come around again for White Waltham to have its inspection of the bells and their fixture and fittings. Hopefully we will gain a Gold award. We will let you know the outcome in the next magazine.

White Waltham CE Academy

What a sweltering summer we have had this year and how fast the holidays have flown us by! A new term has commenced with Foundation children and children in other year groups starting their school life at White Waltham. All children have arrived with beaming faces, shiny new shoes and spotless uniforms bursting to tell us about their summer holidays and adventures!

We have so many adventures to go on this term. Years 1 and 2 are learning about space, Years 3 and 4 are learning about myths and legends and Years 5 and 6 are studying natural disasters. Years 3 and 4 discovered the extraordinary artistry, technology and talent that went into creating the Harry Potter film series when they went on a school trip to Warner Brothers Studio. Their young minds were stimulated as they got out of the classroom and on to the world-famous authentic sets of one of the most successful film series of all time. They came back buzzing with excitement and ideas which will help them enormously with their curriculum topic of myths and legends!

Years 5 and 6 are going to the National History museum next week and are very excited. The museum exhibits a vast range of specimens from various segments of natural history. The museum is home to life and earth specimens comprising some 80 million items within five main collections: botany, entomology, mineralogy, palaeontology and zoology. It is a centre of research specialising in taxonomy, identification and conservation. Many of the collections have great historical as well as scientific value. This trip will help them immensely with their curriculum topic of natural disasters and inspire them to research and produce great pieces of work.

Foundation children will be going on a trip to Bekonscot Model Village & Railway which is the world’s oldest & original model village. With over 80 years of history, a huge model railway, 1.5 acres of gardens and finely detailed model buildings Bekonscot will be a fantastic day out for children and will offer them an unforgettable experience as well as an insight into life in rural England in the 1930s. Foundation children will absolutely love seeing the miniature trains and the Model Village which consists of six little towns stuck in a 1930s-time warp, each with its own character!

As a Church of England school, Christian values form the foundation of our teaching. Every term we celebrate a special value like ‘Forgiveness’, ‘Compassion’, ‘Courage’ etc. This term we are celebrating acts of ‘Generosity’ in our assemblies and are really looking forward to giving Model British Citizen awards to children whose acts and gestures of generosity stand out.

We also look forward to welcoming prospective new parents and visitors to view our school at our Open Days on September 27th, October 11th and November 28th, all from 10 – 11.30 am. This is a great opportunity for prospective parents as the viewing is accompanied by a detailed presentation. The visitors also have a chance to ask lots of questions and see our school in action. Please contact the school office on 01628 822533 if you wish to view the school on any of the above dates or any other time. You can also visit us online at www.whitewalthamschool.co.uk to learn more about our academy.

Spring is Sprung

I hope you’ll be glad to hear that since last time my computers are all back to full working order and I did not lose any data which is a real blessing.

Yes, here in New Zealand spring starts officially on September 1st but for you I assume autumn with all its mellow fruitfulness is under way. Either way, I felt it was high time I gave you some real news from down under so here goes.

I recently took the plunge and responded to an invitation to attend a cookery course for Seniors. This consisted of eight sessions of talks and discussions on various aspects related to cookery. Things like “What is food?”, “Make your plate healthy”, “Planning meals”, “Being a savvy shopper” etc. These times of talking would then be followed by doing the real thing in the kitchen. Mostly we worked in pairs – there were eight of us on the course and there were three people (not older adults!) who ran the course and gave help and advice. After we had followed the recipes for each lesson, we all sat down together and ate what we had cooked... and as far as I know, we all survived through to the end of the course. We all received a cookery book developed especially for older adults cooking for one or two people. This is excellent and contains the recipes we cooked during the course.

After the course had finished, I was looking forward to not having to get up pretty early each Monday and Thursday and also to putting into practice what I had been taught. But a big surprise awaited me! The day after the course finished, I received a phone call from Age Concern (the organisation through which the course was run) to tell me that they wanted to do a television programme about the course... and ask if I was interested to be a part of this.

I decided to say yes; Liz thought it might be fun and so on the next Monday morning it was back into town. The basic structure was the same but there were only four of us to do the cooking and I did not know any of them as they had been on an earlier course, but we soon got to know one another. We listened, then cooked and finally ate what we had cooked. Each of us was also interviewed. The programme was shown on TV the next Thursday.

The course gave me confidence and was a genuine preparation for the cooking that I expect to be doing in the days ahead; indeed I have already started and Liz, bless her, has eaten what I have cooked.

As a Christian I know that this life is itself a preparation for the life to come. Indeed the Bible should be viewed as the Book which contains all the preparations we need to ready for heaven. An acronym for this book is: Basic Instructions Before Leaving Earth. I have to ask “Are you getting ready?”

Last, if you are desperate to see the TV footage and I feel that some may be, I have put the Youtube address below.

Bible Bite

It can be read in the Bible in Matthew chapter 20 verses 1-15

Jesus told a story to describe God's kingdom. A vineyard owner went to the marketplace at dawn to hire workers to pick his grapes.

I'll pay you the normal wage for a day's work.

He went out again at 9 o'clock...

and mid-day...

and 3 o'clock...

I'll pay you a fair wage.

and again with just 1 hour to go before sunset.

At the end of the day...

They were given a whole day's wage...

and so were those who had worked all day.

Pay the last workers first.

You paid them the same and we worked all day!

I want to give those who were hired last the same as you got.

My friend, you agreed to work for a day's wage

Or are you jealous because I'm good to others?

Can't I do what I want with my own money?

Jesus concluded...

So those who are now last will be first, and the first last.

Remembrance Sunday Collections at White Waltham Church

On Remembrance Sunday a collection is taken during the Remembrance Service in White Waltham Church. As usual, the proceeds of that collection will this year be shared between two charities: the Royal British Legion and Combat Stress.

The Royal British Legion provides lifelong support for the forces community and serves men and women, veterans and their families. Examples of the support they offer includes:

- providing help when applying for compensation and benefits
- support for sick, wounded or injured service and ex-service personnel
- respite and family breaks
- advice in managing money and support in managing debt
- providing education and retraining for those having trouble finding work when they have left the services
- giving practical and emotional support at times of bereavement

The Royal British Legion established and operates The Battle Back centre, to support wounded, injured and sick Service personnel in achieving their best possible recovery. It also runs six care homes and offers other services for the elderly and vulnerable including dementia care and mobility aids.

Combat Stress is the UK's leading veterans' mental health charity. They treat a range of mental health conditions including PTSD, depression and anxiety, providing support online, on the phone, in the community and at specialist centre. The charity is a vital lifeline for them and their families.

Combat Stress states ‘Our services help veterans cope with the present, tackle the past and take on the future. Some may find using just one of our services will transform their lives, others may need more to start living again. But our expert team will be there to help every step of the way’.

This year Remembrance Sunday is 11th November

The service at White Waltham Church starts at 10.45am and will be followed by a walk to the War Memorial in White Waltham where there will be a short act of Remembrance.

Everyone is invited to join the Parish Council for refreshments at Holly Cottage – see opposite.

What are Children’s Centres?

A Children’s Centre is a place where local children under 8 years old and their families can enjoy activities and receive support & advice from trained professionals.

Activities are designed for expectant parents or those with children under 8 years old; they encourage social interaction, development and learning through play, thereby supporting the transition to school.

The children’s centres can also help with managing finances, stopping smoking, healthy eating, parenting advice and support.

The children’s centres work closely with health visitors, schools, pre-schools, nurseries, school nurses and many more services that can help with almost any situation.

Many of our sessions are drop in so there is no need to book a space – just turn up.

You can contact us on 01628 685642, email: childrens.centres@achievingforchildren.org.uk and follow us on Facebook: @rbwmchildrenscentres

NEW CHURCHYARD REGULATIONS

The Diocese of Oxford has recently introduced new churchyard regulations which require us to remove items which have not been properly authorised.

In particular, the following items are not allowed: any lighting, whether electric or otherwise; any glass shades; kerbs, fencing, railings or other demarcation; stone or glass chippings; individual gardens, including the planting of shrubs; plastic flowers and wreaths (other than poppies of remembrance); toys or other objects which are not part of a properly authorised memorial.

We have displayed notices asking people to help us to adhere to these new regulations by removing these items. Any items which are not removed from the Cremation Area will be carefully stored and can be collected by arrangement with Tony Hill on Tel. 01628 822654 or via email at hillhomewood@btinternet.com until 31 May 2019. After that time any remaining items will be disposed of.

The complete set of regulations is displayed in the church porch.

If you have any questions, or for more information, please contact:

Human Trafficking and Modern-Day Slavery

The slave trade was abolished more than 200 years ago (The Slave Trade Act 1807) yet there are still an estimated 40.3 million victims of modern slavery, 13,000 of which are in the UK, hidden in our communities.

Miriam was ‘rescued’ from an abusive relationship, promised a better life in the UK as the family Nanny for 3 young children. The family she worked for took her with them to church every week. Little did the church know what suffering she would face that coming week, and again week after week. She was ‘seen’ in church yet wasn’t ‘seen’ at all. No one recognised the signs, or asked the right questions, she was ‘sold’ on to 3 other families and then finally rescued in the true sense when the Home Office raided the home after concerns were raised. Thankfully her healing journey has now begun. Sadly, this is one of many stories.

So, what is being done to help abolish this trade? ‘The Clewer Initiative’, a 3-year project, has been established enabling the Oxford Diocese and wider church networks to work with churches and communities to detect modern day slavery, educating people on how to raise concerns safely. They also work to provide victim support and care.

The Clewer Sisters are an Anglican order of nuns established in 1852 to help mainly young women who were victims of the sex trade, providing them with shelter and a hope for the future. ‘Clewer House of Mercy’ originated in a purpose-built convent in Windsor during the 1880s, the sisters now reside at Ripon College, Cuddesdon; the Clewer Initiative is their legacy.

So, what can we do? To learn more, there is a FREE information evening open to all on 20th October 2018 at 7pm at All Saints Church. A speaker from the ‘Clewer Initiative’ will be coming to tell us what the issues are in our communities, providing practical advice such as recognising the signs that may indicate that a person could be a victim of slavery and how to raise a concern or seek further advice. This evening will also enable us to know what to be praying for as the church. Please do come along! It would be a wonderful opportunity to meet as the churches of Maidenhead, to be equipped to help abolish slavery and to be able to take off our blind folds and say “We See You”.

For more information about the information evening see page 8. There is no charge but free tickets (for catering purposes) are available from Eleanor Kershaw c/o 01628 822000

That really was a fantastic summer but perhaps a little too hot at times for us British people. We do hope you made full use of the weather with all the outdoor activities going on.

There has recently been a Boundary Review of the whole of the Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead. As the population has increased in some areas this was done to ensure there are equal numbers of residents in each Ward. The report has highlighted that many Wards in The Royal Borough need to be realigned with new Wards created and old ones removed. Here in Hurley and the Walthams Ward there is no change.

However, there has also been a review of the number of councillors per population in each Ward. At present there are three councillors for Hurley and the Walthams but come May 2019 – at the next local election – there will be only two. It is unfortunate that the review was done on the basis of population which in itself seems fair, however our Ward is not an urban ward but a rural ward with 17 distinct and individual villages. It is also the largest ward in the Borough in terms of square miles.

Environmental service issues

Residents can now use a form on the council's website to report additional environmental services issues. In the past some of these issues had to be conveyed to customer advisers on the telephone. You can now report online: Noise, Dust, Smoke, Asbestos, Odour, Light, Rubbish and Air quality.

Residents can also apply online for an environmental search for: purchasing a property, planning developments and a scrap metal licence under ‘environmental services’ on the RBWM website.

Smart Motorway M4 Junction 3 to 12
Many of you will have heard of the work to make the M4 Juncions 3-12 into a Smart Motorway. This means there will be:

- An additional lane for traffic increasing capacity to reduce congestion.
- More technology on the road to smooth flows and manage incidents.
- More reliable journeys.

This scheme involves:

All Lane Running
Between junctions 3 and 12 the hard shoulder will be converted to a traffic lane so that there are four lanes available for use by road users. Between junctions 4 and 4b there will be five lanes.
Where a hard shoulder does not currently exist the motorway will be adapted to create a minimum of four lanes. The barrier in the central reservation will be replaced by a new concrete barrier.

Through junction running
This enables a consistent number of lanes to pass through the junction, reducing the need to change lane for vehicles staying on the motorway. Through-junction running will be in place at junctions 4, 5, 6, 7, 8/9 and 11 and at the Reading motorway service area.

Well worth a visit: www.highwaysengland.couk/m4j3to12

Refill your water bottle in Maidenhead
Local businesses are now offering to fill up people’s reusable water bottles for free. This benefits both the businesses as people go into their establishments, and the people. Henley is already part of this scheme.

There is a free app on both the Apple and Android app store that brings up a map and shows you where your nearest Refill point is. Plus, each business has a sticker in their window. Maidenhead has just started with this scheme but already has 15 Refill points – expect that number to climb sharply over the coming few weeks.

Take a look at www.refill.org.uk/refill-maidenhead

There is so much going on in the council and we have highlighted here just a few. To find out more you can go on the council’s website: www.rbwm.gov.uk where all the latest news and consultations etc. are to be found.

We are always very conscious that we have been elected by you to carry your voice and any concerns to the council, so if you do have any council issues that we can help with please do get in touch.

Kind regards

Carwyn, David and Maureen
